MACHU PICCHU & MACHU PICCHU MOUNTAIN

2 DAYS / 1 NIGHT

MACHU PICCHU & M. MOUNTAIN

Experience Machu Picchu from its most iconic sites to its most spectacular viewpoints. Explore the legendary Inca citadel and ascend the imposing Machu Picchu Mountain, enjoying unique panoramic views of the ruins and the Andean landscape.

ITINERARY

DAY 1: CUSCO – MACHU PICCHU - AGUAS CALIENTES

This adventure begins with pickup from your hotel in Cusco, Urubamba, or Ollantaytambo, followed by a transfer to the Ollantaytambo train station. From there, you will board the train to Aguas Calientes—the town of Machu Picchu (approximately 1 hour and 30 minutes). During the journey, you can relax and enjoy views of rivers, mountains, agricultural terraces, and picturesque Andean communities. Upon arrival in Aguas Calientes, your guide will be waiting to escort you to your hotel, provide all the necessary information, and then continue to the Aguas Calientes bus station. From there, a 25-minute bus ride will take you to the main entrance of the Machu Picchu citadel. You will begin a 2-hour and 30-minute guided tour, where you will discover the history, architecture, and deep spirituality of the Inca citadel. At the end of the tour, you will have free time to explore at your own pace before returning to your hotel in Aguas Calientes, where you can enjoy lunch and rest.

DAY 2: AGUAS CALIENTES - MACHU PICCHU MOUNTAIN - CUSCO

On this second day, you will enjoy Machu Picchu Mountain. The day begins with pickup from your hotel in Aguas Calientes. First, we will take you to the bus station, from where you will ascend to the entrance of Machu Picchu.

Once inside, you will take part in a guided tour of approximately 2 hours and 30 minutes, exploring areas with unique panoramic views of the citadel and gaining in-depth insight into the history, architecture, and some of Machu Picchu's best-kept mysteries.

At the end of the guided visit, you will have free time to explore the site at your own pace before returning to Aguas Calientes, where you can have lunch on your own. According to your train schedule, you will head to the train station to return to Ollantaytambo, where we will be waiting to transfer you back to your hotel in Cusco, bringing this wonderful experience to a close.

WHAT TO BRING?

- Wear comfortable, layered clothing to easily adapt to changing weather, as conditions in Cusco and Machu Picchu are different and can change suddenly.

- Wear shoes with good grip or comfortable trekking shoes, as you will walk along uneven trails.

- Use sunscreen, sunglasses, and a hat, as the sun in Machu Picchu and throughout the entire route is very intense.

- Stay hydrated and choose light snacks to enjoy the tour comfortably and avoid discomfort.

- Bring your ID and some cash in Peruvian soles for snacks, souvenirs, etc., as not everyone accepts credit cards.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

- Be punctual at all times, as both train tickets and Machu Picchu entrance tickets have fixed schedules with no option for rescheduling.
- Stay hydrated by drinking water frequently.
- Avoid heavy or greasy meals before and during the tour.
- Take care of your belongings in markets and crowded areas.
- Get a good night's rest the night before, as the tour starts very early and ends on the second day in the evening, depending on train and entrance ticket schedules.
- Take time to calmly enjoy the views from the viewpoints and take photos, but also spend a few moments simply enjoying the place without a camera.
- Weather in Machu Picchu is unpredictable; you may experience strong sun, light rain, or mist on the same day.
- Stay calm and enjoy it, as each environment is part of the experience.
- Do not touch or climb on the structures, do not leave trash, and follow conservation rules; this ensures the experience remains unique for everyone.
- Remember that the tour involves waiting times for trains, buses, and entrances, but everything is worth it once you reach this Wonder of the World.
