ROUTE OF THE SUN

PUNO TO CUSCO / FULL DAY

ROUTE OF THE SUN PUNO - CUSCO

Enjoy an adventure to the imperial city of the Incas, traveling through spectacular landscapes and breathing in pure mountain air.

ITINERARY

Very early in the morning, we will pick you up from your hotel in Puno to begin our adventure along the Route of the Sun, one of Peru's most beautiful journeys. Our first stop is Pukará, famous for its pre-Inca legacy, its lithic museum, and the traditional ceramic 'toritos' (little bulls). We then continue to La Raya, the highest point of the trip, offering stunning views of snow-capped peaks, llamas, alpacas, and vast Andean landscapes. Later, we reach Sicuani, a fertile valley where we will enjoy a lunch prepared with traditional local flavors. Our journey continues to Raqchi, home to the imposing Temple of Wiracocha—one of the Inca Empire's most important ceremonial centers. Finally, we visit Andahuaylillas to explore the Church of San Pedro, known as the 'Sistine Chapel of the Americas' for its breathtaking frescoes and exquisite gold-leaf details, before arriving at your hotel in Cusco, where our adventure concludes.

WHAT TO BRING?

- Wear comfortable, warm layered clothing, including a hat and gloves, as the weather can be highly variable along the route.

- Wear comfortable walking shoes, as you will be walking on uneven trails.

- Use sunscreen, sunglasses, and a hat, as the sun along this route can be very intense.

- Stay hydrated and choose light snacks to enjoy the entire journey without discomfort.

- Bring your ID and carry cash in Peruvian soles for snacks, souvenirs, and other expenses, as not all places accept cards.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

- Acclimatize beforehand by spending at least one or two days at high altitude before the tour to avoid altitude sickness.
- Stay constantly hydrated and drink water frequently, even if you do not feel thirsty.
- Avoid very heavy meals before and during the journey.
- Carry small amounts of cash, as it will be useful for purchasing items you may need along the way.
- Use sun protection at all times, as the Andean sun is strong even on cloudy days.
- Respect archaeological sites by staying on marked paths and avoiding contact with ancient structures.
- Be prepared for changing weather conditions, as the climate can vary significantly within a few hours.
- Get a good night's rest the night before, as this adventure is long and more enjoyable when you are well rested.
- Take your time to enjoy the scenery. It is not all about photos; observing and feeling the surroundings is equally worthwhile.
